Our Curriculum Journey	Journey: The children will be exploring what a Faith Buildings is. They will be introduced to the Gurdwara and Sikhism and the main features of a Gurdwara. The children will look at pictures inside and outside of the building and will also explore a virtual tour of a Gurdwara. The children will discuss the key features that they can see and begin to discuss why they think it might be a special place for a Sikh and why it is important. After the children are familiar with the importance of a faith building, they will be able to compare to other faith buildings they have learnt about.
